WELCOME

To the Women of the Class of 1991:

When we, the members of the yearbook committee, first tried to determine a possible theme for our yearbook, we knew that the one we chose had to reflect the Regis community as a whole, and more specifically, the class of 1991. Finally settling on the jigsaw puzzle, we saw the significance this image held in terms of the individuality of every person at Regis College, as well as the marvelous unity of the puzzle when all these pieces come together. There is little doubt that our theme will hold diverse meanings for each student and class, and indeed, that was our purpose in selecting it. For the jigsaw puzzle may evoke both feelings of uniqueness, as each woman at Regis has her own distinct character, and community, as the true beauty of a seemingly disjointed puzzle can only be realized when these parts become one.

We also feel that the theme incorporates the different aspects of life at the college. Among these are the intellectual, spiritual, emotional, social, and physical well-being of every person. Whether she is a resident or commuter, full-time or CED student, these pieces work together in nourishing well-rounded, complete individuals.

Finally, the inclusion of the freshwoman, sophomore, and junior classes in the 1991 yearbook echoes our theme yet again. Although the emphasis of these pages is obviously the graduating seniors, we realize that they alone do not embody Regis. Rather, every individual within each class is a significant part of the whole. Thus, even though it is with some sorrow that we see the senior puzzle once again becoming fragmented with separation, we can feel confident in that uniqueness each of us has maintained through the years and which Regis College has fostered.

Bright futures are a tradition at Regis. If a woman can challenge the process of leadership, inspire a shared vision, enable others to act, model the way, and encourage the heart, then she represents a woman of great stature and leadership. A teacher of contagious leadership, pride and spirit for Regis College, her leadership is a gift. The secret of success is in her head and in her heart. This woman of leadership is a woman of service and dedication to the community. Her secret of success lies in imagination and intellect.

A mentor who will be greatly missed and thought of as she undergoes her new journey and undertakes her first sabbatical, Sister Therese, your words of God that were spoken to us so long ago still glisten in our hearts.

Julia Downs
Senior Class President

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to her and the other to the Lord. When the scenes of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life, there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most why you would leave me. The Lord replied, "My dear, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Follow your dreams and God will always be with you.

"The servant leader is one who elicits other people's opinions and helps others discover their own talents. Persuasion, patience, foresight are all part of this servant leadership mode. Women should not feel compelled to be traditional leaders."

"I want Regis to continue to offer unusual opportunities for women to succedd, to grow in confidence, to fulfill their potential whatever it is."

I Thank You God For Most This Amazing Class!

Dear Class of 1991,

Your image of the jigsaw puzzle as a yearbook theme says it one more time—as a class you have a special way of seeing things and a special way of doing things that has marked you from the beginning. You are all that Regis claims to be and you call each of us—each of you—to be an authentic part of that reality. You force each of us to ask the question, what is the uniqueness that enables Regis to put all the pieces together to form a basic, beautiful pattern, that is ever changing, ever new? You offer your answer which is the struggle for total "being", for commitment to a faith in what is good and beautiful and true.

And so my image of you, as you prepare to move from—but not leave—Regis comes from a poem of E.E. Cummings:

> I thank You God for most this amazing > day: for the leaping greenly spirits of trees > and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything > which is natural which is infinite which is yes. . .

Why is this so? Let me count the ways.

The theme of the Orientation Committee to welcome you as Freshmen in 1987 was "Lean on Me". As soon as you established yourself as a class, that phrase became your message to others and today it is part of your Regis identity.

As Sophomores you responded to and set the tone for what is already a tradition now for every sophomore student—dinner at Morrison House! That same year your academic leaders pioneered the first Presidential Honors program, which has been affirmed and established by faculty vote.

As Juniors, your class sponsored a regional meeting for the New England Catholic Collegiate Association, and a member of your class was elected the first woman president of the association.

As Seniors, members of your class were the first to receive outstanding service and spirit awards on Convocation Day. The committee was asked to choose three students who honored the mission of Regis in extraordinary ways of leadership and service and who made a difference in the lives of others. The committee found it impossible to recognize only three and thus ten seniors received the award. On that day your very lives asked the entire College to "Catch the Spirit".

In all these ways and for all these reasons, to me, for four years, you have been a most amazing class—a greenly spirit of life, a true blue dream of idealism, a touch of the real, a touch of the infinite, a living yes to life— and I thank God for you.

Sister Therese

If you're not wasted... the day is.

After a while you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul, and you learn that love doesn't mean security,

and you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts,

and presents aren't promises,

and you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes open,

with the grace of an adult,

not the grief of a child.

And you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans.

After a while you learn that even sunshine burns

if you get too much.

So plant your own garden and decorate your soul.

instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.

And you learn that you really can endure,

that you really are strong,

and you really do have worth.

ALL Freshwomen

Here at Regis College we are all pieces of a wonderful puzzle. Each year, the Freshmen bring new things, things that could only happen with each new class. As Freshmen we become little sisters to our Junior sisters to help each other make it through the year. Our big sisters help us adjust to our new home and lives. Since we are one big family, every year there is a hole for each of us to fill.

If there were never Freshmen, there would be no upperclassmen. Could you imagine going through four years of college as an underclassman? No way!

The world is a picture made up of several puzzles put together- isn't it nice that you are a piece of that small puzzle that makes up Regis.

Sophomores

Sophomore year may be one that some students in the class of 1993 would rather forget, but this short time has added spice to our college career. Our second year at Regis has made us older and wiser, for we are no longer the young freshwomen that entered in the fall of 1989.

Who could forget the great "sophomore slump"? How about serving at the Christmas Banquet? Our talent carried us through the evening: no one dropped a plate! Then there was dinner at Morrison House. We exhibited our best behavior while we dined with Sister Therese and discussed life at Regis.

Finally, March brought spring break and reminded us the end was near. We ordered our class rings, and said good-bye to our big sisters in the Class of 1991. We held the Daisy Chain with pride, for they taught us well.

Juniors

To many of us, you are still the "sophomores down the hall." It is hard to believe that we have grown up so fast and both your and our stay at Regis is nearly over.

We have seen so much together. You "orientated" us, shown us how to laugh, how to party like the natives in the Caribbean, how to avoid work, and how to get to Babson, Boston College, and Harvard, to name a few. Though you are not our official "big sisters," you are just as special. You befriended in September of 1988 and have never disappointed us.

We are sad to see your Regis puzzle completed, but we know that you will make new puzzles, incorporating us in some of the pieces. As seniors next year, we can only hope to finish our Regis puzzle just as well as you have completed yours.

Ring Ceremony

Ring ceremony 1990 gave the class of 1992 another puzzle piece to complete the picture of the Regis experience. Looking down at our rings, many of us realized that we are no longer the freshmen that have four years ahead of us! After the ceremony, our success was visible, and most of us enjoyed a great dinner with our families. Little did we know what convocation would bring!

Many of the women in the class of 1991 decided to incorporate other lands in our personal puzzles. Going abroad filled this desire in both an educational and social education.

The class of 1991 went as far away as Europe, and as close as Washington D.C. to experience a semester at a different college. No matter where the women went, they met new friends and experiences, and made memories that will last a lifetime.

These pictures show us some of the sights of Europe as seen by Sheila Dunham, Meg McDevitt, and Jennifer Pauley. Though 1991 semester abroad was interrupted by the war in the gulf, it will not doubt return to offering exceptional experiences to the exceptional students who strive for culturally different pieces in their puzzles.

A tradition at Regis College, the annual Father-Daughter Banquet brings students of all classes and their fathers together for a night of dinner, dancing, and delight. Fathers, a crucial piece of any Regis woman's family puzzle, become a part of their daughters' Regis puzzle for the evening.

Lantana's in Randolph was the setting for the occasion which held special meaning for the seniors. This, their last banquet, was colored with memories from previous banquets, and reminded the Regis seniors what an integral part families, particularly fathers, play in their lives.

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste,
and remember at peace there may be in silence.
As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others,even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud an aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter; for always there will be greater an lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of a aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. An whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive God to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

The End of the Beginning...

Black Tie marked the end of our four years together. It celebrated our memories and our friendships. Black Tie also marked the beginning not only of our Senior Week; a week of parties and ceremonies- but also of our new lives, our futures and our new beings. For this reason this momentous occasion was met with so much excitement , anxiety, fear, and happiness. For at the end of that night we graduated into the real world and embraced knowingly or unknowingly what lay ahead of us- good times, hard times, careers, new friendships, marriage, and families.

VOLLEYBALL

for Regis!!

/ou find Waldo?

I'd rather be married!

With a young team consisting of five freshmen, the 1990 Regis Volleyball team experienced a rebuilding year. They stated a slow season against some of the leagues toughest opponents but managed to pull together for an overall record of 12 wins and 14 losses. A morale boosting match for Regis was verses Franklin Pierce College. Despite the odds of being the underdog and playing at Franklin's home court, the Regis team gave Franklin Pierce a run for their money. The Beacons amazingly came from a losing 0-2 match to win it 3-2. To top off the season, the Regis Beacons took the first place title at a tournament hosted by Rivier College. Competing against 5 other teams and eliminating then one by one, Coach Mehran and the girls were happy to end their season with 5 consecutive victories.

The Diving Team at Regis, also known as the "Other Team" by the swim team had a fobulous season with only a mere few umsuccessful meets. Though we are small in mumber we are a very powerful force in Dibing Competitions. Krista, Shelley, and Karyn all qualified for the Division III New England Championships which took place in February. Krista qualified for a second year in a row for the Division III Swimming and Diving National Championships in Atlanta, Georgia and also qualified as an Academic All American.

Next years Deving Team will be lead by Captain Shelley Sloss. Best of luck for a successfil 1991-1992 season. thanks for all the nights of fun and keep the excuse wall alive.

When You Put Your Heart In It

We knew it was one in a million
It was such a long shot
But somehow we got here together
And who knows what will happen
Anything can happen, anything can happen
If we keep getting better
Keep getting better
And we keep on believing
When you put your heart in it
It can take you anywhere
This road was so long and winding
It was such a hard road
But we couldn't stop once we had started
We were always getting closer Suddenly it happened, suddenly it happened
A chance in a lifetime, chance in a lifetime
And we're gonna take it
We can make it
When you put your heart in it
It can take you anywhere
Who's to say that we can't make it
It's the same dream that we share
Keep on believing, keep on believing
When you put your heart in it
It can take you anywhere
Who's to say that we can't make it
It's the same dream that we share
Keep on believing, keep on believing
When you put your heart in it
It can take you anywhere
Who's to say that we can't make it
It's the same dream that we share
When you put your heart in it
It can take you anywhere

TOGETHER

The word, "together " has a very significant meaning at Regis. Together , we stand as a single unit, working towards a common goal - higher education for women. This unit is made up of many. We are not only students, but administrators, professors, and staff members as well. This idea of togetherness also ties in with the liberal arts tradition at Regis. We are educated to be knowledgeable in a broad range of subjects, because a combination of these subjects enhances the many qualities of a well rounded woman.

" I am a REGIS girl...."

Would you allow yourself to be seen like this on a co-ed campus?

" MEN ! Grab them quick before they get away! "

" But our door is always open, so c'mon in and have a few!"

Oh, Kris, wake up. Class has ended!

Can you get back to us on Friday afternoon? Then you'll see what we really look like!

"I can't belive you think my nail polish is a tacky color!"

"So you think you're a princess? Obviously, you haven't met us!"

We really aren't the jealous type.

It just doesn't get any better than this! (sigh)

"Of course we're sweet.But if she's not off the phone soon, things will get messy."

WEIRD. Definitely weird.

The Final Piece

There comes a time when the final piece is placed into the puzzle, and at last the image is complete, clear, whole. Graduation is the final piece of the puzzle that we've created together.

Orientation is similar to the opening of a puzzle box. Hundreds of pieces are thrown together and it is seemingly incomprehensible how they will connect. Inevitably some pieces come together quickly, and in other cases there is difficulty finding a niche. Over time the corners and sides are found and help to hold the other pieces within together. Months go by and what at first appeared to be a perfect fit suddenly becomes apparent that it does not belong where it is. Some shuffling takes place and after a little readjustment the alien piece is at home again linked with new more appropriate pieces. Every piece has a place.

Unfortunately the picture that took four years to piece together is instantaneously broken apart again. Each of us represents an essential piece of the puzzle. As we walk back down the aisle, diploma in hand we are removed from the once finished picture and sent off to be placed in another, new puzzle. For some the new picture will be that of a family, others business, and other will be higher education. Most of us will be a part of many puzzles, but none will look quite the same as the final picture of the puzzle of Regis College. The beautiful part of a puzzle is that even if the pieces are separated they can be brought together again and the picture is recreated in the exact likeness.

It has been our goal when creating this book to present pieces of the puzzle to help you trigger the memories that create your image of Regis College. The picture will be different for everyone and the critical final piece is one we could not possibly include in this book for it is within each of our hearts.

BEST FRIENDS...

Are FOREVER

From the Desk of the Editor:

Finally, our yearbook is complete. To say the least, it cost my staff and myself a lot of blood, sweat, and at many points, tears. However, the book is entirely finished and on time--yeah.

I hope that you are all pleased with our efforts since our main goal was to incorporate and represent as many of our class members as possible, and I feel that we achieved this goal. However, this goal was not reached alone. Therefore, I would like to thank those who helped this yearbook become a reality.

Thanks to Sister Therese, Lynn Coleman, and Dr. Young for your support and advice. To John Neister, Karen Stariha and Josten Publishing Company, a big thanks goes as well. Overwhelming thanks to Jack Kelley and Burlington Studios for always coming through when we needed you the most. Jack, I owe you my first born. Also, thanks to Steven Belcher and Sr. Marie Dineen for the use of the graphics art room and its equipment. To Barbara Belamairch for all the little favors you performed.

Thanks to my staff--Audrey, Patricia, Allison, Sheron, Danielle, Rosemary, Tara, Kathy, Missy and Nerissa--without you this book would never have been possible. But especially to Sheron, who was my right hand woman and guided me through this ordeal. Sheron, you'll never know how grateful I am.

To the class of 1991, for letting us represent you, for your support and your endless supply of photographs. As your classmates and friends know, we did the best we could for you. We all wish you the best of luck in the future, and congratulate you on a job well done. Remember, even though we now all go in separate directions, we will always be a piece of each other's puzzle.

Best Wishes,
Maria Rodriguez

Memories abundant
Arranged throughout each page.
Regis tradition lingers on,
Images of every age.
And in the years to come

Somehow if we forget
Here come and sit and read
Each object of our sweat.
Regis, our sentence is finally over
Our paroll is in sight
Now this book is finally done, and with that good night.

...TO ROSEMARY ALEXANDRA HUGHS...
...OUR DARLING CHILD...

You drew a tough spot in our family... and emerged all the stronger for it...

From that Shy, Quiet, Sweet Little Girl... Who hid under her mother's skirts so no one would see her...

To that beautiful, Brilliant,
Determined, Vocal,
Wonderful, Young Woman
you are Today!!!

As Minni would say...
"Documented proof that God DOES create miracles."
God Bless and Keep You Always...
You are the Pride of the "S" Sisters...
We are so proud... We love you so much...
Dad, Mom(Regis '59), Liz (Regis'84), John, Richie, Debbie, Meaghan, Nana, and your loving Godson, Jack Hughes "V"

"Suzie" "Pooh" "Sue" "Suzette",

Where has the time gone to. It seems like only yesterday you were starting first grade. Now here you are a lovely grown young woman who we are very proud. You have brought us happiness, joy and a drain on Dad's check book! You are a charming, talented young woman, full of smiles. We wish you good luck, success, and much happiness in the future. You will always be our "little girl."

Love,

Mom & Dad

Friends forever
we always say we'll be together
til our dying day.

Always sharing our secrets at night until we're convinced everything is alright.

Helping with homework dying our hair going on missions
because we care.

Singing wery loud
in a dented car on the way to a party or a favorite bar.

Never forget the nights from hell he never called it's just as well.

All together or one on one I'll be there for you
'til Kingdom Come.

CONGRATULATIONS

REGIS

Time goes on so fast that we didn't notice
this was the end.
We finally stepped forward to set our goals, which time will help
to achieve.
Regis, we owe you
our happiness, our knowledge.
Now we all say goodbye,
to the one who created those strong eagles which you will see depart but you will stay in our memories
as that special place,
that will last forever.

Ginette Garcia - Soldevilla
